

THE NATION'S TRIBUTE

FUNERAL SERVICES OF THE LATE CHIEF JUSTICE IN CONGRESS.

An Impressive Scene in the Hall of the House of Representatives.—The Family, Supreme Court, President and Cabinet, Senate and Federal Officials Present—Bishop Parrot's Sermon—Memorial Meeting of the St. Louis Bar in Federal Court—Mrs. Waite Passes Through the City En Route to Washington—Meeting of the Cincinnati Bar.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 23.—The remains of the late Chief Justice Waite were removed from the family residence on I street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, to the Capitol at 11 o'clock this morning. They were accompanied by his relatives, the Associate Justices and their families, the officiating clergymen, officers of the Supreme Court, representatives of different bodies of which the deceased was a member, and many friends. There were services at the house; the arrangements were of the simplest and quietest character. The cortège proceeded to the Capitol by way of Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

IN THE SENATE.
The Senate met at 11:30 this morning. After prayer by the Chaplain the Clerk of the House appeared and delivered a message from that body, announcing that it was now in session and ready to receive the Senate. Then presiding officer (Mr. Ingalls) said: "Pursuant to order, the Senate will now proceed to the hall of the House of Representatives to attend the funeral of the Chief Justice."

Thereupon the procession of Senators, headed by the Chairman and Sergeant-at-Arms, with the presiding officer and the Secretary of the Senate following in the second rank, took up its march to the hall of the House of Representatives. There were no spectators in the galleries of the Senate, and only a few attended any portion of the Capitol except on presentation of a ticket of admission. After the service the United States Colored Guard, who had been appointed as a committee to attend the funeral at Toledo (Officers Sherman, Almon, Evans, George and Gray) came in review with bugle and drums and remained for some time waiting for the arrival of the funeral procession.

As early as 11 o'clock this morning the galleries of the House were crowded with spectators and others, and the remains of the late Chief Justice and to do honor to the memory of the deceased. The door of the House being open, the curtains at every doorway were heavy draperies of black and the folds of the American flag, which had been draped over the casket, fully caught up with the same emblems of death and sorrow. In the space in front of the casket were ranged heavy leather-covered chairs for the immediate relatives and friends of the deceased, the President and his Cabinet, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the members of both Houses of Congress. The front rows of the desks of members were reserved for the invited guests. The floor of the space was filled with chairs for the accommodation of the invited friends and members, including many ladies.

DEATH-BED PRAYER.
Promptly at 11:30 the speaker called the House to order. Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, followed by the Rev. John G. Heavenly Father, in whom we live and move and have our being, draw high unto us as we attempt to live and act in the upright and unselfish way. Then Agnes, who would recognize Thy hand in the removal of Thy servant, the late Chief Justice of the United States, and in the removal of the members of both Houses of Congress. The front rows of the desks of members were reserved for the invited guests. The floor of the space was filled with chairs for the accommodation of the invited friends and members, including many ladies.

DEATH-BED PRAYER.

The business of the House was then suspended, while its officers carried in the bier and pall on the sarcophagus of the Clerk's desk. At 11:45 the Senate was announced and all the members remained seated, while the Senators took up their places, the Senator from Indiana occupying a chair to the right of Speaker Carlisle. The Regents of the University, the judges of the District of Columbia, the District Commissioners, the members of the Diplomatic Corps, the officers of the United States Supreme Court and of the Department of Justice and members of the Senate and House of Representatives unannounced and were escorted to seats upon the floor. A few minutes before noon, Mrs. Cleveland, wife of the President, and the two ladies being appropriately dressed in black.

THE PRESIDENT AND CABINET.

At five minutes before 12 the President and his Cabinet were announced, and the hundred or more people who had been in special attention as the distinguished guests were escorted to their seats.

Evening.—The Cabinet was present, and with them entered Gen. Sheridan, who was clad in full uniform. In a few moments the Congressmen came in, followed by the officiating Episcopal clergyman, Bishop Parrot, reading "The Lord giveth, and the hand of man taketh away; for we know not his will." The casket containing the remains of the Chief Justice was borne into the chamber and placed on the floor. The bearers of the Supreme Court, and behind them, attired in uniform, the four heraldic pallbearers, the Justices of the Court. The members of the Congressional Committee wore white sashes fastened at the shoulder, and black hats with white plumes. The ladies were elegantly dressed in white satin and with a floral tribute of yellow roses and white lilies.

The impressive burial service of the Episcopal Church was then read by Bishop Parrot, the music being supplied by an effective band of soloists and eight voices, to an organ accompaniment. The solemnity of the occasion was heightened when the Rev. Dr. Farnsworth, the Apostolic Bishop, recited "The Lord giveth, and the hand of man taketh away; for we know not his will."

Then the invitation to other Posts to attend will probably be made a feature in the future.

NEWSPAPERS.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.
MONTICELLO, Ill., March 23.—C. N. Wall of Monticello has purchased the Taylorville Democrat from Judge Foy for $5,000. He will move to Taylorville and enter at once upon his work as editor. The paper will remain in effect until May 1, when it will be sold to Mr. Reynolds, an organ accompanist, assisted by his brother, who will start a new paper at Illinoian, Illinois.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.—The Rev. Dr. Farnsworth, the Apostolic Bishop, recited "The Lord giveth, and the hand of man taketh away; for we know not his will." The members of the Congressional Committee were elegantly dressed in white satin and with a floral tribute of yellow roses and white lilies.

THE FEDERAL BAR.

Memorial Meeting in the United States Circuit Court This Morning.

This morning at 11 o'clock the members of the bar of the United States Circuit Courts met in the United States Circuit Court room to take action on the death of Chief Justice Morrison J. Waite, District Attorney T. P. Bashaw presided, and George D. Reynolds acted as secretary. C. Fletcher presented a memorial on behalf of the bar, and consisting of H. G. Fletcher, D. F. Dyer, Warwick Hough, John Robbie, Jas. O. Broadhead, J. E. Mc-

Keligan and Charles Claffin Allen. The late Chief Justice was spoken of as follows:

"His decisions were strikingly brief, but forcible and pointed, dealing with every legal feature of the case, leaving nothing which might be allowed to embarrass and cripple the great cause he represented. His judgment was common sense, to the sound and reasonable exercise of which all his legal learning and experience contributed. Self-respect and ambition to decide justly and clearly than to argue brilliantly and impressively. His sudden death in the high office he held is a great and mournful loss, not only to the Federal judiciary, but to the nation which he served; but his life and career, ended in the midst of labor and toil, and pride in a well-fought battle, are an inexcusable gain."

JAMES O. BRODHEAD moved the adoption of the memorial, and followed it with a short speech of the principles of the law which he had known. It befitted the legal profession, he said, to honor one who so conspicuously deserved it.

In the fourteen years of his official life, the Chief Justice had been called upon repeatedly to decide questions of great moment, and he had always done his duty to the best of his ability, having been perfectly qualified for the office, and a credit to his country. The motion was then put and carried.

James O. Broadhead moved the motion for the adoption of the memorial referred to the modern spirit of the Chief Justice's decisions. He did not speak much, but in a manner which gave a decided edge to his words.

In the fourteen years of his official life,

the Chief Justice had been called upon repeatedly to decide questions of great moment, and he had always done his duty to the best of his ability, having been perfectly qualified for the office, and a credit to his country.

The motion was then put and carried.

THE WAITE FAMILY EN ROUTE.

This morning the widow of the late Chief Justice Morrison E. Waite arrived at the Union Depot in a special car for Los Angeles, with her two sons, Jas. O. Broadhead, Jr., and the young son taken to marriage. Mrs. Waite arrived on the Missouri Pacific, and, as the train was late, missed connections with the Wabash east, which road she intended to take to Chicago. Her son Jas. O. Broadhead, Jr., had arranged to meet her at Toledo, where there is in the party her sister, Mrs. Glynn of Toledo, Lieut. Harry Waite of the United States Army, and Lieut. Ruth of the United States Navy, an intimate friend of the family, who is in charge of the party.

Mr. Glynn, Jas. O. Broadhead, Jr., and Mrs. Waite. He met the train at Newton, Kas., Lieut. Harry Waite rode seventy miles home so as to meet the train at Kansas City. The party left here shortly before 10 o'clock.

AT THE CONDUCTOR'S ACCOUNT.

CINCINNATI, O., March 23.—A very large meeting of the Hamilton County Bar was held today in the United States Courtroom to pay tribute to the death of Chief Justice Waite. Hon. Alonso Taft presided. Eloquent tributes to the dead were spoken by a number of members of the bar. There was no meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day.

BEFORE JUDGE CADY.

A COUPLE OF OFFENDERS WHO FACED THE PEACE MAGISTRATE THIS MORNING.

JOHN BANKS, colored, and his mistress, Lou Derrick, who figured in a shooting scrape at Eighteenth and Market streets Monday night, were before Judge Cady this morning on count charges of disturbing the peace. John explained that when he left home Monday morning the woman was dressed, and when he returned shortly afterward she was undressed, and a man who boarded with them was in the house. He directed her to assume her right of not being true to him and raped her. He left, and when he returned at evening she met him with revolver and first shot at him, one of them striking him in the head. It was slight only, the bullet merely cutting a slight wound in the scalp. Both were then armed. The woman took the stand and started off at an alarming gait. It was like an eight-day springer, and Court Officer Clegg, who was sent up to assist, contemplated her under cover of mutual conversation powers. When Judge Cady finally recovered from the shock he uttered a sharp curse and then said, "Brave or not, you're a bad nigger." The woman was then arraigned and given a trial date.

THE CONDUCTOR'S ACCOUNT.

DETROIT, Mich., March 23.—The fast express on the Michigan Central, which met with an accident near Burnside last night, arrived at 8:45 this morning. Conductor Grosvenor was not very communicative as to the accident. "All there is to it," he said, "is that we were crossing the Bell Line, eleven miles west of Chicago. Just as we crossed, the Wabash freight, coming along on the Bell, plowed into our rear sleepers. It did not cut through two because the main train was not running more than six miles an hour. I guess these fellows did not know the track was closed." The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

It was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was closed, and that traffic would not be interrupted. None of the passengers were so badly injured as to prevent them from getting out of the cars. The conductor said he had the blame on the Wabash trainmen, as they say that their train had the right of way. The WABASH BLAMED.

At the Michigan Central office this morning it was stated that the track was

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,

Published by
THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
Joseph Pulitzer, President.(Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis, Mo.,
as second-class mail matter.)

TERMS OF THE DAILY.

One year, postage paid, every afternoon and Sunday morning..... $10 00

Six months..... 5 00

Three months..... 3 00

By mail, delivered to subscriber..... 2 00

Sunday Edition, by mail, per year..... 6 00

Subscribers who fail to receive their paper
regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

THE WEEKLY.

One year, postage paid..... $1 00

Six months, postage paid..... 50 00

All business or news letters or telegrams
should be addressedPOST-DISPATCH, 515 and 517 Market street.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Room..... 502

Business Office..... 502

London Office, 32 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross.

HIGH-WATER MARK, 54,420.

The circulation of the DAILY
POST-DISPATCH in the City of St. Louis is larger every week than that of any other newspaper in the City.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 1883.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

Grand Standard Lectures.
Olympic—She.
People's—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.
People's—Town Lots.
Standard—Banch King."The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p.m. to-day,
for Missouri are: Light to fresh variable winds, becoming southerly;
warmer, fair weather.We advise the C. B. & Q. directors to prove an alibi.Mr. BARTLE of St. Louis has risen to fame more suddenly than any man since BURCHARD's time.A FAIR ASSESSMENT of Jackson County property and of railroad property would enable the State to reduce its rate of taxation.The needy ex-Confederates have a new pang added to their poverty when their cause is championed by BLAIR and RID-DEBERGER.THAT unsavory lard investigation is making everybody sick enough to for-swear pie-crust and strawberry short-cake forever.The lesson of TATE's defalcation is an old one, but often unheeded. The lesson is that every public office needs overhauling from time to time.THE DEPEW BOOM is now fully exposed to the public gaze. Mr. DEPEW's friends guarantee that he can carry the State of New York. He should be given a trial.THANKS to the oft-repeated cry of "Poor Old Missouri," our State is now getting the benefit of the pirate schoolmarm of Kansas. Detraction is not always powerless to hurt.IF RUSKIN has really gone insane the world has lost a genius who has done as much for art as WAGNER has done for music, a genius whose influence will endure forever.In England it is considered quite a fad of financing to save a penny in the pound on the income tax. In this country
a surplus of a hundred and fifty million dollars a year is not considered worth noticing.THE CANADIAN railroad monopolists have very little to learn from their conferees on this side of the line, but they have not been able to prevent the building of the Red River Valley road, which is now announced as a certainty.A KANSAS CITY paper says it never heard of a real estate boom in Louisville. We believe the Falls City has not had that disease
and is not now suffering from the consequences. She has not been compelled to have her assessed valuation cut down one-half or reduced at all by the State Board of Equalization.If the South wants pay for her slaves
and to recover many times the amount of the cotton-tax, all she has to do is to join the high-tariff Republicans, who are so bent on squandering the surplus and on having a surplus to squander. They will abolish the whisky tax to please her moonshiners and vote her bounties enough
from the public Treasury to keep the tariffs as high as the trust monopolies
can ask.THE TEXAS TRAFFIC Association is an organized combination of railroads to suppress competition and subject the public to an arbitrarily fixed schedule of rates. It includes with the Missouri Pacific and Texas Pacific six of the principal competing roads of Texas, and is not a mere trust or combination of stockholders, but is the act of the corporations themselves. Therefore the Attorney General of the State has instituted proceedings to restrain them from entering into co-operating with any such combination. Unless Texas enjoys the benefits of some new and peculiar legislation he mayfind it much easier to convict them of a combination against public policy than to apply an adequate remedy to the wrong.A RECENT Supreme Court decision declared that the State right to prohibit the manufacture and sale of liquors did not include the right to prohibit the importation of liquors from another State,
as that would encroach upon the exclusive domain of Congress and abridge the freedom of interstate commerce. If imports into one State from another are thus protected from State control it would seem that exports from one State
to another must be under the same protection. So a Kansas brewery will ask the Supreme Court to hold that State law
cannot prohibit it from exporting beer
from Kansas, and therefore cannot prohibit it from manufacturing for export.
The interstate line is not easy to trace with accuracy where the police power is involved, but it would seem that, as a State's police power is exercised for the protection of its own citizens only, it can hardly apply to a business run so as to affect only
the citizens of some other State.

THE CHINESE TREATY.

FULL TEXT OF THE DOCUMENT, WITH THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.Secretary Bayard's Letter Reciting and Explaining the Provisions of the Treaty—
The Prohibition of Chinese Labor Immigration—Certain Exemptions and Privileges—Indemnity for the Victims of Western Riots—Duration of the Convention.WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—The President's message transmitting the new Chinese treaty to the Senate, together with Secretary Bayard's letter and the treaty itself, are printed herewith. The following is the substance of the documents:

To the Senate:

I have the honor to transmit herewith
and recommend for your constitutional approval a convention signed and exchanged between the United States and China, for the exclusion hereafter of Chinese laborers from coming into the United States.The treaty is accompanied by a letter from the Secretary of State in regard to its provisions and explanatory of the same. It also contains sundry documents giving the history of events connected with the presence and status of Chinese subjects in the United States. In view of the particular character which has for a long time been manifested in relation to the question of Chinese immigration,
it is deemed necessary that the terms of the treaty should be made public, and I respectfully recommend that an order be issued to that effect
by your honored body.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Washington, March 28, 1883.

A SECRETARY BAYARD'S LETTER.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

With your usual acumen you pronounce the Republican party about a conference at the Arlington Hotel, Washington, between the Barney and other Democrats, with the object of defeating Cleveland's nomination, a canard.In the course of your brief and pointed remarks yesterday you refer to George Hearst
and "other representatives" of the money
power, corporations and the "strictly business element" in politics.I feel that you would willingly do Senator Hearst an injustice, and, as I know him,
beg the privilege of setting him right before you repeat the story.1. That Mr. Hearst is an enthusiastic Cleve-landite, who has been so without shadow of turning since the advent of his administration.2. Although Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in California—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the Califor-
nia Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.1. That Mr. Hearst is one of the many Missourians who have become rich in Califor-
nia—he is, however, entirely self-made and
through honorable private enterprise—he has
not only stood in with the corporation and
political world, but has won the confidence of
such a man as San Francisco Examiner to his son, Mr.
William R. Hearst, that journal of whom was
unusually vigilant in exposing the corruption of
corporation exactions. Some of the California Democrats, myself among the number,
have been in close touch with Senator Hearst
and his son, and in view of the celebrated
Stockton Comstock, a boy who was adopted
further in the line of opposition to corporation
exactions than any other Democratic state
representative that ever assembed in the United States.I will add, Mr. Editor, that there is practically no high-grade corporation vigor and
perseverance. For years before he turned
to the Republicans, Senator Hearst was entirely self-made and vigorous.

The Bridal Bulletin.

The following marriage licenses were granted during the twenty-four hours ending at 8 p. m. to-day:

George Melchior	109 Market st.
Emilie A. Spitzfaden	171 S. 3d st.
Johannes Miller	111 N. 3d st.
Bruno Mrozewski	1013 High st.
Anna L. Kuehnert	2846 Washington av.
Emilia A. Hugues	1890 Washington av.
Charles Bohm	1450 N. 12th st.
Annie Herschmidt	128 Middle st.
W. B. Miller	Cincinnati.
Hattie Levi	Lawrence, Ind.
Fremont Dooding	St. Louis.
Irene Rogers	Piedmont.
Edmund C. Hause	Piedmont, Mo.
Carrie L. Meek	City.
Max G. Boyer	Montgomery, Ill.
Augustine Curtis	2519 N. Broadway.
Frances Wyker	2019 N. Broadway.
John G. Keeler	308 S. 4th st.
Elizabeth	111 N. 3d st.
Joseph W. Hall	1036 Emmet.
Josephine Schwarz	1035 Emmet.
Edward F. C. Bowig	2923 Rutgers.
Albert J. Schaeffer	1450 N. 12th st.
Lendrum R. Ridge	Philadelphia.
Nora G. Hamilton	Floyd County, Pa.
Louis Crecelius	St. Louis County.
Louisa Schlebenburg	St. Louis City.

PURE 18-KT. gold WEDDING-RINGS,
Wedding invitations, the finest, lowest prices.
Meredith & Jaccard Jewelry Co., Cor. 4th & Locust.

Births.

The following births were reported to the Health Department during the twenty-four hours ending at 8 p. m. to-day:

Emma, daughter of Michael and Maggie Hogan, March 18; 4:21 A.M. Argyle street.

John, son of John and Anna Bode, March 27; 12:44 P.M. South Third street.

Maggie, daughter of Henry and Maggie Sonnenman, March 27; 12:45 P.M. North Twelfth street.

Joseph, son of Joseph and Anna Brinkmann; Emil, son of Christian and Emma Halske, March 26; 1:45 P.M. North Market street.

Samuel, son of G. K. and J. Brush, March 25; 2:03 P.M. St. Louis.

Eugene, son of William and Alice Hunnicke, March 15; 12:00 P.M. Gratiot street.

Annie, daughter of Louis and Maggie Schlagel, March 15; 12:00 P.M. Gratiot street.

Aloisia, daughter of John and Aloisia Skala, March 5; 1:12 P.M. South Twelfth street.

John, son of Edward and Anna Hills, March 4; 1:12 P.M. Morrison street.

Edmund, son of Edward and Maggie Muller, March 24; 2:03 P.M. Eugenia street.

Henry Charles, son of Amelia and Emma Bollinger, March 24; 2:03 P.M. Eugenia street.

John, daughter of C. F. and Amelia Jacobs, March 23; 9:15 N. Ninth Seventeenth street.

John, son of John and Lizzie Kaellenberg, March 24; 1:45 P.M. Madison street.

John, son of John and Louis Janemann, March 15; 1:45 P.M. Cass avenue.

Frederickson, son of Frederick and Winnie Gerard, March 24; 1:45 P.M. son of James and Mary Stevens, March 24; 1817 Cass, 18th street.

John, son of Anderson and Aldine Lee, March 13; 5:15 N. Second street.

Harriet, daughter of Alfred and Maria King, February 22; 1:45 S. Fourth street.

Deaths.

The following birth certificates were issued by the Health Department during the twenty-four hours ending at 8 p. m. to-day:

Lorenz Lampert, 67 years, 1111 Chouteau avenue; ulcer of stomach.

Catherine Hogan, 4 years, 811 Carr street; diphteria.

Andrew Schneider, 45 years, City Hospital; pneumonia.

Thomas Robinson, 38 years, Missouri Pacific Railway Hospital; pneumonia; poor-house; diarrhea.

John W. Waddington, 20 years, 1828 Garfield avenue; bronchitis.

Thomas Meissner, 2 years, 1511 Picket street.

John W. Wider, 69 years, 825 South Sixth street; bronchitis.

John, son of 45 years, Lucky street and Spring square; consumption.

William Turner, 16 years, 817 South Twenty-third street; bronchitis.

H. C.iger, 57 years, City Hospital; alcoholism.

Alfred Meyer, 30 years, 18th street; Sixth and Market streets; accident.

Frida Gills, 6 years, 3025 North Broadway; diphteria.

Anna C. Lang, 19 years, 1809 St. Louis avenue; pneumonia.

Charles Boyd, 19 years, 818 S. Euclid avenue; endocarditis.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate transfers were recorded during the twenty-four hours ending at 8 p. m. to-day:

Mary Fried and wife, to Miss Laura, 101 N. Oregon av.; city block 2629; warranty deed.

Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street; city block 2737; warranty deed.

John H. Courtland, Jr., to Mrs. J. H. Courtland, 1715-1725 N. 12th street

"DELICATESSEN!" THE POPULAR LUNCH-ROOMS, 110 N. Fourth Street, 712 Olive Street 716 N. Broadway.

CITY NEWS.

PEOPLE go where they get the most for their money. That's the reason there are so many to be seen in the military parades.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
Corner of 5th and Olive streets. Set of teeth, $2.

PRIVATE matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsmore, 61 Pine st.

Dr. Wurster, 217 St. Charles, cures diseases & indiscretions, indulgence. Call or write.

MUNICIPAL ASSEMBLY.

A Large Number of Bills Taken Off the Books in the House.

The discussion of the claims of Contractor Fitzgerald for $2,000, for plastering done at the Insane Asylum, occupied the Council last evening. The bill was passed over to the committee of Mr. Cole. The bill authorizing an extension of the Missouri Railroad tracks to Forest Park was passed. Mr. Blakely presented a resolution asking the City Counselor and Street Commissioner to report a general street railroad ordinance for the guidance of the Assembly in future. This was referred to the Committee on Legislation, and the Council adjourned.

THE HOUSE.—The House of Delegates, last evening the bill to reconstruct the bridge from Peacock to Grand Avenue, was passed. On the recommendation of Chairman Stone of the Roads and Bridges Committee, the bill authorizing the sale of the city's gas stock and the bill increasing the powers of the Board of Sanitary Control of the Railroad Committees adopted a similar tactic. He reported bills presented by the Union Depot Company, St. Louis Transfer Company, the Missouri Railroad Company, Louis Cable & Western Company, Park Railroad Company, People's Railroad Company, and Grounds Railway Company; Union Railway Company, St. Louis & Southern Railway Company, Linden Valley Company, Wabash Western Railroad Company, the Louisville & San Francisco Railroad Company, Merchants Exchange, Compton Hill & Tavern Grove Company, the British American, the Park Park Railway Company, and the Rapid Transit Company. A recommendation to file these bills was adopted.

The pool-selling bill was also filed. The bill authorizing the Benton-Bellefontaine Rail- way Company to change its name and powers was passed. After other amendments had been voted down the bill extending the franchise of the Forest Street & Arsenal Railway was passed. After a long debate in the room containing the Gas Investigating Committee the House adjourned.

We Will Be Pleased to Receive Your Order for a Spring Suit, Pair of Pants or Spring Overcoat.

We can show you not only the largest stock of woolens to make your selections from, but can give you BETTER WORK and LOWER PRICES than can be found elsewhere in St. Louis.

MILLS & AVERILL,
Southeast cor. Broadway and Pine.

AVENGED HIS FATHER'S MURDER.
The Pemberton Murder Trial—Accidentally Killed—Illinois Items.

GIRARD, March 28.—James Heitz, a lad of 10 years, son of James Heitz, who was killed by Wimland, a carpenter, on the street yesterday afternoon. The boy said that Wimland had shot his father in his billiard hall last November, causing his death; that he had promised vengeance, and that it angered him to see Wimland walking about the streets. He was placed in jail at Carlinville.

HARRISBURG, March 28.—The trial of Ulysses Pemberton, for the murder of his father, commenced yesterday afternoon. He claims that he did not know his father had been killed, and that the shooting was accidental. It was shown, however, that he had been disinterested in the case.

CARNO, March 28.—Thomas H. Harvanest was accidentally shot and killed yesterday in the woods. In jumping over a log a gun he held in his left hand discharged, the contents entering the back of his head.

DEQUOIN, March 28.—O. C. Pitts, a traveling salesman, in a heavy bond to answer charges of embezzlement.

New Through Car Service
via
COLORADO SHORT LINE,
(Missouri Pacific Railway) to Pueblo and Denver.

Commencing Sunday, April 1, solid trains composed of coaches and Pullman Buffet Dining Cars will run daily between Kansas City and Pueblo and Denver on the Missouri Pacific Railway's Colorado Short Line. Leave Kansas City 8:30 a.m., arrive Pueblo 12 noon the next day, Denver 6 p.m. Train leaving St. Louis at 8:30 p.m. connects with this train at Kansas City. Ticket offices, 102 North Fourth street and Union Depot.

SENTENCED TO HANG.

Granted a New Trial—A Pioneer Gones— Serious Charges—Missouri Matters.

OZARK, March 28.—John Matthews was brought to trial yesterday afternoon and sentenced to death May 15 for the killing of Knob Murders. Wiley Matthews and Wm. Walker were next brought in and sentenced to death the same day. Walker made a statement to effect that he did not believe that he had a fair trial, and that there was no evidence against him except uncorroborated testimony of his co-defendants.

MEXICO, March 28.—The court has granted a new trial in the case of John Rogers, a lad of 16, accused of killing his mother. The trial was adjourned until April 10.

KANSAS CITY, March 28.—Geo. H. Brown, a real estate agent, was arrested yesterday on charges of mail robbery from W. L. Power, another real estate dealer.

HANNIBAL, March 28.—The forty-first session of the North Missouri Conference, M. E. Church, opened here last night. There is a good attendance.

In your next order for groceries include a package of Flap-Jack Flour.

ON THE TRAIL.

Pursuit of the Clew Hobbers—Counterfeiter Captured—Texas Topics.

CISCO, March 28.—It is reported here that traces of the train robbers were discovered yesterday in the woods near Pierce by some boys out hunting. Two saddles were picked up which were left behind by the robbers.

WACO, March 28.—J. M. Cloughron and Peter Kelly were arrested yesterday at Calvert on charges of counterfeiting. Some men were found to be the principals.

BELMONT, March 28.—The jury in the case of Benben Stillwell, charged with killing James Foster, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

"It takes the cake" every time, we mean Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Get the genuine.

Murdered by a Tough.

Base Ball in New York.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

New York, March 28.—The team of junior players Manager Mutrie has with him in the South will return to this city on Tuesday.

A MAMMOTH STAKE

OF $20,000 TO BE OFFERED BY THE BROOKLYN JOCKEY CLUB.

The Event to Take Place at the May Meeting in 1889—Conditions of the Stake—Spalding's Plan for His Great Australian Base Ball Trip—The Game in New York—Sporting News and Notes—Base Ball Guide.

The Last Browns—Whites Game.

The St. Louis Browns leave to-morrow night for Memphis to play the Browns game between them and the Whites will be the last for some time. The batteries will be changed, Knoff and Royle, and Somers and Kenyon officiating for the Whites, and Staley and Dolan, and Nyce and Caudle for the Browns. Play will be at 8:30 p.m. Jack McQuaid will be on hand.

Grand Stand Chat.

Charlie King will in all probability accompany the Browns south.

The Browns play in New Orleans on Wednesday April 4, having canceled their date at Birmingham.

Nat Hudson, the Browns' pitcher, will be with the team to play with the Browns for Memphis Thursday night.

"I suppose Nimick thinks I should stand over a natural gas fire and sweat off about eighty pounds,"—Galvin.

The Browns leave for Memphis to-morrow night on the Iron Mountain road. They play at 8:30 p.m. and open in New Orleans on Sunday.

Memphis only has seven pitchers. Some of them will be singing "What are the Wild Geese?"—Galvin.

Before starting South the Washingtons will have to make up their minds to whom to give the moneys. The nominator will be released over all liability except the first declaration of the race.

In the event of the death of the nominator or transfer before the race, the engagement will not be void, provided it is engaged to another.

The owner of the horse, who shall thereupon become entitled to all rights of the original nominator—see furloge.

SPALDING'S BIG TRIP.

Arrangements for the Scheme to Introduce Base Ball into Australia.

As announced in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH President A. G. Spalding of the Chicago Club will send two base ball teams to Australia at the close of the season. To end, some time ago Mr. Spalding sent Mr. Leigh S. Lynch, a well-known theatrical man, to Australia to make arrangements for the scheme to introduce base ball into the country.

Mr. Spalding will select twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty-five or thirty players, take a party of managers and place them under the control of Capt. Anson, who will have entire charge of the tour.

"Every player," says Spalding, "will be a professional, and a man of good character."

The local management has as yet heard nothing from the Australian Government.

It is expected that the Australian Government will be represented by Mr. J. C. Pritchett, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Spalding will have a team of twenty